MissionWorks 2018 Embracing Hospitality

OCTOBER 11-13

MissionWorks 2018 in partnership with:

American Baptist Churches of MA
American Baptist Churches of RI
Center for Career Development and Ministry
Conference of Baptist Ministers of MA
Massachusetts Baptist Charitable Society
Massachusetts Baptist Multicultural Ministries
Northern Baptist Education Society

Event Overview

Thursday, October 11th: Theological discussions on Hospitality, evening worship.

Friday, October 12th: Workshops, panel discussions, immigrant and refugee stories, cafe style conversation on Hospitality, hands-on service project, evening worship.

Saturday, October 13th: Embracing Hospitality from Mission Fields, banquet and worship.

How can we co-create places of: refuge and respect for strangers by building bridges across racial, theological and religious divides?

This three day conference is focused on theological, intercultural and practical considerations to welcoming strangers. Numerous tracks include panel discussions, facilitated conversations, workshops on topics including Cross Cultural Hospitality, Settlement/Resettlement, Incarceration, Faith journey of Strangers, as well as a youth track.

2018 KEYNOTE Speakers

Rev. Mariama White-Hammond serves as Minister for Ecological Justice at Bethel AME Church in Boston, is a fellow with the Green Justice Coalition, and was recently named a "transformational leader" by Boston Magazine.

Miroslav Volf is a celebrated author, Professor of Theology and Director of the Yale Center for Faith & Culture. Volf is a "theologian of the bridge" exploring diversity and inclusion.

Kaia Stern is co-founder and Director of the Prison Studies Project at Harvard University, her published works focus on transformative justice, dignity, and education in prison.

Ray Schellinger is an International Ministries Global Consultant, hosting international cross-cultural teams to learn about migrant struggles, realities of immigration and border policies.

David Reed is a regional missionary with International Ministries in Iberoamerica and the Caribbean with a focus on spiritual renewal, spiritual formation and vocational calling.

Walt White is an International Ministries Global Consultant, training under-served international development workers, pastors and leaders to be more effective. White's goal is to increase the longevity of cross-cultural workers and to strengthen the effectiveness and length of service of these workers in transforming lives.
