To be held at the Emmanuel Baptist Church

November 5, 2016
9:00 am – 3:00 p.m.

Our guest and speaker: Brent Walker, executive of the Baptist Joint Committee from 1999 until his recent retirement. In this position he has been at the frontlines of critical discussions about religious liberty in our nation. With both legal and theological credentials, he will address the topic:

Directing Traffic at the Intersection of Church and State.

Mr. Walker will be speaking with us immediately before the 2016 presidential election. He is speaking with us at a time when issues of religious freedom are obvious in the media and continue to be controversial. These issues are at the core of our Baptist heritage. Our conversations with Mr. Walker will help us discern from a Baptist point of view some current understandings and misunderstandings about these core issues.
